INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON RADIOPHARMACEUTICAL THERAPY

NANJING, CHINA; 21–25 AUGUST 2019

On behalf of the organizing committee and the world association of radiopharmaceutical and molecular therapy (WARMTH), it is my great pleasure to invite you to attend the 14th International Conference on the Radiopharmaceutical Therapy (ICRT), to be held in Nanjing from August 21 to 25, 2019. This conference will offer to our Chinese and International colleagues a unique opportunity to learn about the recent advances, exchange scientific ideas and their experiences in the nuclear medicine therapy and molecular imaging as well as molecular targeting within a wonderful environment.

Nanjing is one of the oldest cities in China, dating back to the 571 years BC, and served as the capital city of several Chinese imperial dynasties. Today, Nanjing combines history, culture, tradition, and modernity. Its geographic location is strategic and located less than 2 hours by train from Shanghai. Its International Airport connects most international cities with direct flights, such as Tokyo and Frankfurt. Attendees and visitors may appreciate the Imperial Mausoleums, old temples, traditional gardens, City Wall and many other museums in Nanjing. Nanjing is among the leading Chinese cities for life science research with 74 colleges and universities; the Nanjing University, Southeast University, China Pharmaceutical University, and Nanjing Medical University are a few examples.

The ICRT is the first organized meeting in the field of radiopharmaceutical therapy, which turned into a prestigious international scientific event. Throughout this meeting, the attendees of the ICRT–2019 will discover exciting and diverse scientific and social programs.

We look sincerely forward to seeing you in Nanjing; we do hope that you will much enjoy this scientific event as well as the deep Chinese culture, local cuisine, and Chinese hospitality.
